Overview

Three-Bedroom Townhouse with a Private Patio in Nueva Atalaya. Priced to sell!

This welcoming family townhouse is located in an established neighbourhood in Nueva Atalaya, on the border between Marbella and Estepona. Set within a small gated complex of just 23 houses sharing a communal garden and swimming pool, it offers a comfortable home with character and a particularly private outdoor space.

Built in the mid-1980s and renovated in more recent years, the property has a homely atmosphere, with individual touches and distinctive details throughout. The accommodation is arranged over two floors, with a practical layout suited to everyday family life.

On the ground floor, an entrance hallway leads to a generous living room, which connects to the kitchen through a semi-open layout. This arrangement creates a sociable living space while retaining some separation between the two areas. A guest toilet completes this level.

Upstairs are three bedrooms and a shared bathroom, keeping the sleeping accommodation separate from the main living areas.

A highlight is the private patio terrace of approximately 30 m². Offering a high degree of privacy, it provides space for alfresco dining, comfortable lounge furniture and relaxed afternoons outdoors. It could also become a favourite spot for the family dog.

The property includes a covered carport parking space, with ample guest parking conveniently located approximately 20 metres from the house.

Competitively priced for a three-bedroom townhouse in this area, this is an appealing opportunity for buyers seeking a family home with private outdoor space and access to communal gardens and a pool.
