

Land in Tarifa

€715,000

Tarifa, Cádiz

Plot: 117543 m²

Overview

Discover a rare opportunity to own an extraordinary piece of the southernmost coast of Spain. This rustic plot of nearly 118,000 m² lies within the Parque Natural del Estrecho, a protected area of extraordinary ecological and scenic value, just steps from the sea and the historic Torre de Guadalmesí.

Set against a backdrop of rolling hills and panoramic views of the shimmering Strait of Gibraltar, this property offers uninterrupted vistas of the sea — on clear days, you can even see the Moroccan coastline.

The land includes three unique structures, now in ruinous condition:

- A charming countryside finca blending rustic character with timeless Andalusian charm

- A small, cozy house ideal for guest accommodation or personal retreat
- An atmospheric bunker, a rare and intriguing historic feature

With its exceptional natural surroundings, gentle sea breezes, and incredible location at the edge of Europe, this is the perfect spot for a tranquil retreat or a unique private estate.

Opportunities like this are truly few and far between. Whether you're drawn by the sweeping ocean views, the surrounding nature, or the serene solitude, this one-of-a-kind coastal plot in Tarifa is the definition of timeless beauty and potential.
