Overview

Exclusive urban estate set on three plots totaling 11,000 m², located in Pelayo just 5 minutes from Algeciras and 15 minutes from Tarifa, bordering Los Alcornocales Natural Park and offering an idyllic setting of total privacy and direct contact with nature. The property benefits from crystal-clear spring water, its own well and mains connection, abundant vegetation, Mediterranean gardens, charming corners and centuries-old trees. The main residence, an Andalusian manor-style house of about 500 m², is distributed over two floors and combines high ceilings, large windows and spacious interiors that reflect warmth and elegance; the ground floor includes a kitchen, a cozy dining room, a second living room with fireplace and library area, four bedrooms and two bathrooms, while the upper floor offers two bedrooms, one bathroom and a games room with panoramic views of the Strait of Gibraltar. Several terraces facing south and east, along with a rear patio with fountain, invite year-round outdoor living. The estate also features a fully equipped loft-style guest house, a private swimming pool with spectacular views of the Strait, Gibraltar and the African coast, extensive gardens with native trees, private pathways and relaxing spots. With a privileged climate offering mild temperatures throughout the year, the property is ideal as a main residence, second home or investment for holiday rentals, providing a haven of peace, light and nature in one of the area's most unique settings. While perfectly habitable and welcoming, the house would benefit from some renovations depending on the taste and needs of the new owners. A viewing is highly recommended.
