Overview

Charming 3-Bedroom Semi-Detached Country House with Over 2,000 m² of Land in Pizarra

Set in the peaceful countryside of Pizarra, in the heart of Málaga's beautiful Guadalhorce Valley, this semi-detached country house offers an exciting opportunity for those looking for a property they can renovate and transform into a beautiful countryside home.
Arranged over two floors, the property offers three double bedrooms, one full bathroom and an additional guest toilet.
Upon entering the house, the current layout welcomes you into a dining area, with the staircase leading to the upper floor.

From the dining area, the accommodation flows into the living room, which features a traditional fireplace and offers plenty of potential to create a cosy and inviting family space. Beyond the living room is the property's full bathroom.
The good-sized kitchen provides ample room for everyday use and opens directly onto a private rear courtyard, where there is also a useful storage room.
Upstairs, the property offers three double bedrooms together with a separate toilet.
One of the property's main attractions is its generous plot of over 2,000 m². The land is currently planted with established orange and lemon trees, creating a lovely traditional Andalusian country setting with plenty of outdoor space to enjoy. There is also ample space for a future pool area, subject to the necessary planning permissions and approvals.
The property also benefits from an exterior garage, providing additional practical storage or parking space.
At the far end of the plot, you will find an irrigation channel. The plot is classified as rustic land with residential use.
The property does require considerable renovation and updating throughout, but this is also where much of its potential lies. With the right investment and vision, the house could be transformed into a truly beautiful country home, making the most of its generous land, traditional character and peaceful surroundings.
Surrounded by the natural landscapes of the Guadalhorce Valley, yet within easy reach of Pizarra and its everyday amenities, this is an interesting opportunity for buyers looking for a renovation project with plenty of land in the Málaga countryside.
