Overview

Discover this spacious property in a strategic, established and well-connected location. Just a few minutes from the historic city centre, financial district, shopping areas, hospitals and the main access routes, it offers the convenience of having all essential services close at hand.

The property features four bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a spacious living-dining room, a separate kitchen, a large terrace and a parking space. It is a home that can be enjoyed from day one, as it does not necessarily require renovation, while also offering an excellent blank canvas for an updating and personalisation project.

The spacious and bright living-dining room opens directly onto a generous terrace overlooking Avenida de Andalucía. This versatile outdoor space could be used to create a lounge area, an outdoor dining area or a relaxing retreat.

The separate, currently fitted kitchen offers the possibility of creating a more contemporary layout by connecting it to the living room. The four bedrooms provide a variety of options: a main bedroom with a balcony and space for a large wardrobe, a home office for remote working, and children's, teenagers' or guest bedrooms. The bedrooms overlooking the interior courtyard also provide greater privacy and tranquillity.

The two full bathrooms complete a particularly practical layout for a family.

The property is located in a residential building featuring marble finishes, a concierge service and two lifts per staircase, providing both comfort and a sense of prestige.

The property includes a spacious parking space of almost 13 m2, located next to the lifts and close to the garage entrances.

A property offering a combination that is difficult to find: a prime location, generous proportions, a terrace, four bedrooms, two bathrooms and parking, together with the flexibility to keep it as it is or transform it into a contemporary home fully tailored to its new owner.
