

Detached Villa in Frigiliana

€1,950,000

Frigiliana, Málaga

Bedrooms: 6 | Bathrooms: 5 | Plot: 1678 m² | Built: 608 m²

Overview

Set within one of the most sought-after areas of Frigiliana, these impressive villas enjoy a privileged position with far-reaching views across the surrounding mountains and towards the Mediterranean Sea. Approached via a private cul-de-sac, the property offers a wonderful combination of privacy, space, authentic character and modern comfort.

The main villa is accessed through a private entrance leading to a large driveway with ample parking for several vehicles, together with two enclosed garages, providing excellent storage and secure parking.

Entering the villa from the rear, via a generous courtyard, creates an attractive and welcoming approach to the main entrance. The entrance hall immediately sets the tone, with its impressive vaulted ceiling and feeling of space and light. From here, the accommodation flows naturally into the kitchen, dining room and living room, as well as a convenient guest WC.

The large, bright kitchen is both practical and welcoming, combining modern appliances with the rustic charm and character of the property. There is an abundance of storage and plenty of natural light, with beautiful views towards the swimming pool and sea. The kitchen also benefits from a separate utility room and its own external entrance. Patio doors open directly onto the pool and terrace area, making outdoor dining and entertaining effortless. There is currently a charming four-person breakfast table in the kitchen area, while the generous proportions of the kitchen also provide the opportunity to add a central island.

From the kitchen, you can return to the entrance hall or take a step down into the spacious dining room. Currently arranged around a large eight-person dining table, this versatile room also incorporates a comfortable home office area. There is ample space to accommodate a substantial banquet-style dining table, making it ideal for entertaining family and guests. Patio doors once again open directly onto the pool terrace, while the room enjoys wonderful views across the pool and towards the sea.

The impressive living room is another particularly spacious area of the villa, featuring high vaulted ceilings that enhance its sense of scale and character. Currently furnished with several comfortable sofas and a baby grand piano, the room offers considerable flexibility for creating different seating and relaxation areas. Large patio doors lead directly outside, bringing the spectacular sea and pool views into the room and creating a seamless connection between the interior and exterior spaces.

A bright, open corridor leads to the bedroom accommodation. The first double bedroom is currently arranged with bunk beds, making it an ideal children's room or flexible guest bedroom. Next is a generous double bedroom with its own en-suite bathroom, followed by a further double bedroom, also with an en-suite bathroom, which additionally benefits from an area suitable for a study, reading space or quiet retreat.

Situated at the front of the villa, the principal bedroom and its own en suite enjoys an enviable position, with patio doors opening directly towards the pool terrace and beautiful views extending towards the sea. The spacious terrace area immediately in front of the bedroom is currently used as a gym, but could easily be adapted into a comfortable chill-out area.

Outside, the villa truly comes into its own. A large covered terrace provides the perfect setting for al fresco dining and entertaining, while the substantial private swimming pool is surrounded by generous terraces offering plenty of space for sunbathing, relaxing and socialising.

The outdoor areas have been designed to make the most of the villa's exceptional setting, with views across the mountains and towards the Mediterranean, creating a wonderful backdrop from morning through to sunset.

Throughout the property, the villa successfully combines modern convenience with authentic Andalusian charm. Vaulted ceilings, generous proportions and traditional character sit comfortably alongside modern appliances and contemporary comforts, creating a home that feels both elegant and genuinely inviting.

With its private approach, extensive parking and garages, spacious accommodation, private pool and exceptional views, the main villa provides a rare opportunity to own a substantial property in one of Frigiliana's most desirable settings.
