Overview

Nestled in the sought-after Urique area near the historic old tower of Alhaurín el Grande, this beautifully refurbished finca offers charm, privacy, and stunning views of the Sierra de Mijas. Set on a flat and usable 3,000m2 plot divided into two areas, the property combines traditional Andalusian character with stylish modern living.

The finca has been tastefully redesigned and decorated to an exceptional standard by a renowned interior designer, creating a warm and elegant home throughout. The accommodation includes 4 bedrooms plus an office, making it ideal for families, remote working, or those seeking a peaceful countryside retreat close to town.

The fully fitted kitchen features a breakfast bar and utility area, leading directly to a spectacular patio designed for outdoor living. Surrounded by colourful flower borders, grapevines, and wisteria climbing over the pergola, this enchanting space also includes an imitation well, BBQ area, and comfortable seating areas perfect for entertaining year-round.

Inside, there is a separate dining room and a spacious lounge with fireplace, creating a cosy yet refined atmosphere. The impressive master suite includes a dressing area, luxurious bathroom, and a large private terrace overlooking the pool and surrounding countryside. Upstairs are two further bedrooms, while the ground floor offers an additional bedroom with shower room and direct access to the patio.

The mature gardens are filled with numerous fruit trees and benefit from an abundance of water supplied by the property's own well, plus additional irrigation water for the gardens.

Access is excellent via a good tarmac road, and the property is entered through electric gates leading to a private driveway with ample off-road parking, a wooden garage, and turning circle. The entire property is very secure and designed for comfortable country living.

The pool area is another highlight, with generous terraces for sunbathing, beautiful open views, and useful storage space below.
