Overview

Pueblo López: an exceptional renovation and the luxury of having everything within walking distance

Enjoy breakfast in the natural light, stroll into the town centre and end the day on your terrace overlooking the greenery. Experience life in Fuengirola from a home where thoughtful design and quality are evident in every room.

In Pueblo López, one of Fuengirola's most charming neighbourhoods, we present a property that has been completely transformed. The interior was stripped back to expose the concrete floors and columns, then entirely rebuilt with high-quality materials and meticulous attention to detail.

A comprehensive renovation with a distinctive character you notice from the moment you step inside.

The generous kitchen, open to the living room, takes centre stage in a spacious, light-filled setting designed for cooking, entertaining and spending time together. Green cabinetry, gold-toned details and strikingly veined worktops complement an interior full of character and elegance.

The layout offers two bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, providing privacy and comfort. The third bedroom has been adapted as a home office, with an elegant glazed partition that maintains a visual connection between the spaces. A separate laundry room adds everyday practicality.

The property will be handed over furnished, with the exception of the living room. It will also be equipped with split-system air conditioning providing both cooling and heating in the two en-suite bedrooms and the living room, ensuring comfort throughout the year.

The corner position brings natural light into the home from two sides: one facing the street and the other overlooking the communal green areas, which can also be enjoyed from the terrace. It is an inviting spot for reading, breakfast or a leisurely afternoon outdoors.

Step outside and everything is close by: approximately 5 minutes' walk to the town centre, 4 minutes to the train station and 8 minutes to the beach.

The building has a lift. The property has no swimming pool or parking space. If you need parking, we can help you look for a nearby space, including options in the underground car park beneath the Suel football ground, subject to availability and at a separate cost.

A home with character for buyers who appreciate a carefully executed renovation and the freedom to enjoy the town on foot.

In some photographs, the living room furniture and bed headboards have been digitally added using artificial intelligence to help you visualise how the property could look fully furnished. This virtual staging is for illustrative purposes and does not represent the current furnishings.
